Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Sean Malone from SC Tigers makes contact with an opponent deemed “Kneeing” – IIHF Rule 50.

From the DPS's perspective, Malone's actions require supplemental discipline.

As the video shows, the play is in the Davos end. Davos #20 Michael Fora receives a touch pass from his teammate TS Nussbaumer from the corner. Fora takes the puck and begins to turn towards the middle of the ice. #63 Rohrbach from SCL is reaching towards him with his stick from behind. #20 continues to look to the middle and at the moment is checked by SCL #37 Malone. Contact is made directly to the left knee of Fora. Contact is knee on knee. Malone is coming across from the faceoff dot with his stick out forwards and his toes pointed towards the boards. He is in a low crouched position. Just as he approaches Fora near the end of the circle you see #37 turn his left skate outwards towards his opponent. (main cam) He then drives his leg and body forward/upwards making knee on knee contact. Malone has to deliver the check through the center of his opponent, but he misses Fora's body and gets his left leg. Fora does not move or jump out of the way of the check, the whole time he is continuing to make his turn inwards to the middle of the ice.
