Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Cody Goloubef from SC Bern makes contact with an opponent deemed “Boarding” – IIHF Rule 41.

From the DPS’s perspective, Goloubef’s actions require supplemental discipline.

As the video shows, the puck is shot on net by a Lausanne player. The puck is blocked and kicks out to #12 Raffl from Lausanne. Raffl takes the puck from the circle area and drives down below the goal line. At the bottom of the circle, he is engaged and defended by #2 from Bern Gerber. Gerber continues to defend Raffl with his stick and body all the way behind the net towards the other side. At the moment both players reach the other side of the net, Raffl is checked in the numbers and projected dangerously into the boards by Bern’s #27 Goloubef. #27 leaves the front of the net and comes around and delivers a check in the back of #12. Raffl does not turn prior to contact, when Goloubef’s skates are on the goal line he can see the back of Raffl’s jersey. He has enough time to not make contact. He arrives with his stick up in the air and delivers a check to Raffl throwing him dangerously into the boards from the back. He shows no regard for the puck that is behind his teammate Gerber. Goloubef is the third man into the battle. Even though the contact is not extremely forceful, Raffl is in a vulnerable position and has no way to defend himself from such contact. There is no need for such contact, Raffl has already been taken out of the play by Gerber.

PSO Report

The Department of Player Safety's recommendation is Category 2 – more than a one game Suspension to SC Bern player Cody Goloubeff.

To Summarize:

1. This is Boarding, IIHF Rule 41
2. Goloubeff checks his opponent in the back projecting him dangerously into the boards
3. Raffl is already engaged with another player and has no way to protect himself
4. Goloubeff shows no regard for the puck
