Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Jerome Bachofner from ZSC Lions makes contact with an opponent deemed “Boarding” – IIHF Rule 41.

From the DPS’s perspective, Bachofner’s actions require supplemental discipline.

As the video shows, there is a shot pass from Lions #4 Geering toward the Fribourg net. The puck is deflected up over the net off the glass. Fribourg’s #89 Bykov is backchecking towards his own net. After the puck is deflected Bykov begins to head below the goal line. Once you see the puck land back down on the ice Bykov is hit from behind and projected dangerously into the boards. Zurich #77 Bachofner arrives from behind #89, has two hands on his stick and raises them to chest level and delivers a crosscheck to the upper back of Bykov. You can see full arm extension from Bachofner during the contact. Bykov does not have possession of the puck he just sees it as it lands. He has no way to protect himself from such contact. Bachofner makes no attempt to play the loose puck. The proximity to the boards makes this check more dangerous. There is no need for such contact.
