Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Claudio Cadonau from SCL Tigers makes contact with an opponent deemed “Boarding” – IIHF Rule 41.

From the DPS’s perspective, Cadonau’s actions require supplemental discipline under IIHF Rule 56 – Interference.

As the video shows, Geneva’s #7 Tommernes takes the puck and skates up towards his own blue line. Just before the line he makes a bank pass off the boards towards his teammate #10 Smirnovs. #10 is looking back and about to except the puck just before the offensive blue line. He is then checked by #43 Cadonau and goes hard into the boards. Smirnovs never touches the puck before he is hit. From Corner Cam #2 you can see the puck goes past his stick and off his foot after contact has already been made. Cadonau steps up and his timing is off, and he checks his opponent who never has had possession of the puck. The proximity to the boards makes this hit more dangerous. The position that Smirnovs puts himself in is not ideal but without possession of the puck he is not eligible to be checked. It was reported that Smirnovs left the game and did not return.
